

CareLearning

You have been enrolled as a student in a new online education program called CareLearning. This internet based learning opportunity is being provided at no cost to you. As a student in CareLearning, your primary responsibility is to take the courses that you have been registered in and master its content sufficiently to meet the achievement criteria.

The courses that are in your 'Classroom' are mandatory for you to complete, but you may also register for any additional courses available in the CareLearning Course Catalog. These course can be purchased by you right from the catalog, but the cost of the course is your responsibility.
